It's A Girl!

After a quick delivery, preceded by weeks of sleepless nights, Harvey and Kim can now relax. Worldly can take over now, and has already shown she knows exactly what to do. The new filly was born midday on May 28th, and was up, standing well and nursing in two hours. No name yet—maybe we should have a contest? Now Harvey and Kim and sleep at night and spend their days imprinting! I call this picture “Loving Touch”.

Suncoast Sunburn Classic

Is Just around the corner on June 11-12, before our next meeting. So we won't have the opportunity to snag last minute volunteers then. If you haven't already signed up, please contact Sally Cahill at 813-286-1698 or at Cahill.sally@gmail.com. As always, more help is better than not enough and since this is our first show in this time slot, we want it to run even smoother than the August shows. And

The minutes were accepted. The treasurer's report was given by Susan Hartman.

There was a quick discussion of the upcoming June show with more to come from Sally Cahill. Congratulations were given to all who participated in the April Schooling Show.

The 2012 Region 3 Championships will be held October 4-7 at Chattahoochee Hill- Bouchert Farm in Fairburn, GA. The 2011 Championships will be held at HITS in Ocala.

You can access FEI TV from the USDF Website – Some of it free, some not.

Peggy Haught was welcomed. She gave a brief presentation on Yoga classes for equestrians. A sign-up sheet was sent around allowing members to sign up for classes to be held at Elizabeth Campbell's home.

Sally Cahill then discussed the need for volunteers at the June show. A sign-up sheet was made available. There is a special need for scribes for half day commitments.

There are two clinics coming up. The first weekend of June at Elizabeth Campbell's with Charlotte Lassiter and July 7th and 8th at Charlotte Hageman's with Bill Woods.

A drawing was held. Most in attendance won something. Gabby Incorvaia, after thoroughly mixing up the entries in the vase, was able to draw her own name for grand prize. She has magical abilities.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30.

The Seven Stages of Aging on Horseback

Stage 1: Fall off pony. Bounce. Laugh. Climb back on. Repeat.

Stage 2: Fall off horse. Run after horse, cussing. Climb back on by shimmying up horse's neck. Ride until sundown.

Stage 3: Fall off horse. Use sleeve of shirt to stanch bleeding. Have friend help you get back on horse. Take two Advil and apply ice packs when you get home. Ride next day.

Stage 4: Fall off horse. Refuse advice to call ambulance; drive self to urgent care clinic. Entertain nursing staff with tales of previous daredevil stunts on horseback. Back to riding before cast comes off.

Stage 5: Fall off horse. Temporarily forget name of horse and name of husband. Flirt shamelessly with paramedics when they arrive. Spend week in hospital while titanium pins are screwed in place. Start riding again before doctor gives official okay.

Stage 6: Fall off horse. Fail to see any humor when hunky paramedic says, "You again?" Gain first-hand knowledge of advances in medical technology thanks to stint in ICU. Convince self that

Presidents Message

Thanks to Elizabeth Campbell for the wonderful food and home. The meeting was heavily attended thanks to the email sent out by Sally Cahill and the offering by her of prizes.

We needed a large attendance so that Sally could outline the need for volunteers at the June show. She did a great job and the meeting was a lot of fun. Please see the minutes for the grand prize winner.

It is very important that we have a good turnout for the show, both in riders and especially in volunteers. The rated shows are our showpiece. Mary, Sally and Joan work very hard in the organization of the show but it can't work without all of you who generously donate your time to its success.

We have a couple of clinics coming up; the first weekend of June at Elizabeth's with Charlotte Lassiter and the June 7th and 8th at Charlotte Hageman's with Bill Woods.

Kim and I are still waiting on Worldly's foal. We are at day 354.

Thanks to all of you for your continual support. I'm looking forward to all of the coming events and to seeing all of you at the June meeting.

Harvey

Happy Birthday to you!

Just in time for the show!

permanent limp isn't that noticeable. Promise husband you'll give up riding. One week later purchase older, slower, shorter horse.

Stage 7: Slip off horse. Relieved when artificial joints and implanted medical devices seem unaffected. Tell husband that scrapes and bruises are due to gardening accident. Pretend you don't see husband roll his eyes and mutter as he walks away. Give apple to horse.
